Archie Dean Davis puts sign in window giving the people of Canyon more details concerning the Randall County Roundup and Old Settlers Reunion set for August 2-4. During the three days of activities a rodeo will be held each night. There will be a parade on Thursday, August 2. A fiddlers contest, Old Settlers reunion, a barbeque, a pancake supper and dancing are some of the fun planned.

County Wants Parley, No City Response Yet

Randall County commissioners have invited Canyon city commissioners to attend a meeting of commissioners court Monday and talk over the controversial city-county rural fire fighting contract.

There was every indication at noon Wednesday that the city would decline.

In recent weeks the county has notified the city that it has unilaterally revised the contract. Members of the city commission rejected a letter forwarded by the county as "unacceptable."

Negotiations so far have been carried on by letter. There has been no face to face meeting of the two governing bodies.

The county has a contract with the city under which $100 is paid by the county for every rural fire call answered by the city. The county furnishes a fire truck for the Canyon fire department.

Randall County has similar contracts with Happy and Amarillo but furnishes no fire equipment to those cities. Commissioners C.Y. Johnson and B.R. Jones have said they just want "to make things equal."

Canyon answers the bulk of rural fire calls in the county. The county has notified the city that $100 a month will be deducted from city billing for fire calls in the future over the next ten years.

County Auditor E.T. Cummings set the present value of equipment being furnished the city fire department at $12,000.00 with a useful life of ten years.

Judge Wayland Angel pointed out that the fire truck in question cost only $5,184.15 when it was purchased by the county in 1950.

One city commissioner Wednesday said the truck furnished by the county is primarily equipped for fighting grass fires and is of little benefit in fighting fires inside the city limits.

The commissioner took the attitude that allowing any deduction from city billing for rural fire fighting would amount to city purchase of the county truck.

"I cannot be for spending city taxpayers' money on a truck we do not need," the city commissioner declared.

County Commissioner Jones said Canyon is getting many benefits from the county, other than the fire truck involved. He pointed to police dispatching facilities, the junior livestock building and the county library as examples.

Actually, police radio dispatching is a joint undertaking between the sheriff's department and the city police department. The county owns the transmitting equipment. The city pays $150 per month for dispatching service. The junior livestock building belongs to the county and is leased for a token fee to the Randall County Junior Livestock Association. Bulk of the money for construction of the livestock building was raised through contributions.

The city pays $100 a month for the upkeep of the library. Mayor Lowes said he would be unwilling to include any of these items in a discussion of the city-county rural fire contract.

At commissioners court meeting Monday, County Commissioner Johnson said there has never been any intent on the part of the county to remove rural fire protection.

Johnson pledged continuation of this protection regardless of the outcome of the county controversy with the city of Canyon.

National Interest Shown For Classic

By MARGO WILLIAMS

The tenth annual Rickshaw Water Ski Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday at Buffalo Lake beginning at 7 a.m. both mornings.

The Class B tournament which will highlight water skiing activities in the Panhandle area, will feature teams and individuals from states in the South Central region.

All persons who have entered the contest must be first class skiers and have membership in the American Water Skiing Association.

Registration for the events starts Saturday at 7 a.m. and the Junior Boys Slalom will begin the tournament at 8 a.m. The final event on Saturday will be the Veteran Tricks. The Mens Slalom division will begin Sunday at 7 a.m. and trophies will be presented at 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

The Rickshaw tournament which is sponsored by the Panhandle Boat and Ski Club is a sanctioned regional tournament with seven divisions. In the junior division children up to 13 years old may enter. The Boys and Girls class includes those from 13 to 17. The Men and Women divisions is made up of persons 17 to 35 years old, and the Veterans are above 35 years of age.

Dee B. Crouch of Pueblo, Colorado, has been chosen as chief judge for the tournament with Kenneth Clark and Gerald Warwick of Canyon assistant judges.

Dick Shaw started the Rickshaw Water Ski Tournament in 1952 in Lubbock. The tournament was the first one in the Panhandle area and in 1958 Shaw moved to Canyon and the Panhandle Boat and Skiing Club of Amarillo and Canyon began sponsoring the tournament.

The 1961 tournament set a new national record for participation with over 120 persons entered. The number of entrants for this year is expected to be around 75. This decrease is due to a raise in the entrance standards. Persons entering must be a first class skier or above.

Winners in the 2-day event at Buffalo Lake will be eligible for the regional tournament which will be held in Lake McQueney, Texas, August 10-12.

A traveling trophy will be given to the highest scoring team on Sunday afternoon.

School Board Has Busy Session Tuesday Night

Canyon school board Tuesday night hiked taxes, approved a tentative budget, studied plans for a half-million dollar elementary building and heard the band director ask for some $59,000 worth of new instruments.

In addition to this, trustees took bids, hired a teacher and conducted several other items of business.

It was the busiest evening of the board this year. The group was in session almost five hours.

The tax hike of 10 cents per $100 valuation from $1.75 to $1.85 had been expected. The additional 10 cents will be used to service bonded indebtedness incurred by voting bonds to build a new elementary building.

"It was discussed before the bond issue was voted," declared Bob Wear, board president.

Band Director Lee Boyd Montgomery presented a five-year plan for refurbishing the band department. He said many instruments required for a first class band are not being made available to Canyon students.

The band director proposed purchase of $58,971.50 worth of new equipment over the next five years. His proposal called for purchase of $15,110.50 worth of equipment for use during the coming school year.

He said prices quoted in arriving at that figure are subject to a discount of from 20 to 30 percent or more.

Type A Blood Badly Needed

Persons with Type A positive blood are requested to telephone Neblett Hospital and leave their name and telephone number.

Blood of this type is badly needed by Mrs. G.C. Cole. Mrs. Cole is being given direct transfusions. She is suffering from a type of leukemia.

Scholarship Announced By Randall Heart Group

Two winners of $100 scholarships offered by Randall County Heart Association have been named.

One is Henry Meyer, an outstanding 1962 graduate of Canyon High School. The other is William Tucker of Pampa.

Young Meyer has been a leader in his class at CHS.

School officials say the Pampa youngster ranks in the upper 5 percent of his graduating class, standing eighth scholastically in a class of 257.

Meyer has announced plans either to become a veterinarian or possibly a medical doctor. Tucker says he plans to become a physician.

Members of the Heart Association board discussed the scholarships at a meeting early this week.

Chairman is W.A. Cooper. Clark Jarnagin is vice-chairman; Toni Dewey, secretary; and Levi Cole, treasurer.

Board members include Joe Gidden, Jerry LaGrone, Raymond Batenhorst, Mrs. John Plank, Mrs. E.R. Reeves and Bill Sternberg.

Mrs. Reeves has been named a delegate to the Heart Association state convention to be held in September in Galveston. Mrs. Joe Gidden has been appointed alternate.

The board approved a budget at this week's meeting.

Charolette Clark, left, and her mother, Mrs. Kenneth Clark, standing in conference with Mrs. Orla Hughes, Canyon High School secretary, during the freshmen orientation which is being held this week at the high school. The conferences and discussion periods are to help the students and parents understand the functions and duties of the child while in high school.

Conferences Underway For CHS Freshmen

Freshman orientation conferences began Monday at the Canyon High School and will continue through July 27 for incoming freshmen and their parents.

The sessions, which begin at 8 a.m. every morning, provide the students and their parents an opportunity to determine the schedule the student will follow.

Eight individual conferences are scheduled each morning and 8 every afternoon.

"Parents seem to be enjoying the conferences, and we would like to remind parents who have not had conferences that the discussions and counseling is very important," said J.E. Miller, CHS principal.

General sessions, which are held every day, are followed by individual meetings.

"If you have moved to the Canyon School District since school closed last term, you are requested to call OLS-3923 for an appointment," Miller said.

Aussies, Diggers Great People Says Harrison

By TROY MARTIN

Like the boomerang, symbolic weapon of the country they have just visited down-under, the Lowell Harrisons travel far and wide but always return to Canyon.

Dr. Harrison, head of the West Texas State College history department, is a former Kentucky farm boy whose kinship for the wayward wind came out in him during World War II.

During the late conflict he visited Europe but it wasn't for sight-seeing purposes. He was with a combat engineer outfit that swung pontoon bridges under murderous fire from a German army defending its fatherland.

The Harrisons spent about four months in the land of the hare and kangaroo early this year.

They left Amarillo Jan. 22 and flew to San Francisco. There they hopped aboard a Boeing 707 and took off over the open Pacific.

The first stop was for refueling in Hawaii and then on to the Fiji Islands. There they transferred to a smaller plane for the trip on to Auckland, New Zealand. New Zealand has no air fields capable of accommodating the 707.

"We enjoyed New Zealand immensely," Dr. Harrison declared. It is about the size of Colorado, has only 2-1/2 million people, an immense variety of scenery and just about any type of climate you could demand, Dr. Harrison reported.

The islands have about two dozen mountains which tower more than 10,000 feet. There is even a small desert.

The Harrisons visited Milford Sound, which is a wild area not unlike the fjords of Norway. They found the thermal area—one of three such areas in the world similar to that in Yellowstone National Park—was interesting indeed.

Natives use it for cooking purposes. They dig holes in the ground, place food in a bur-lap bag, put the bag in the hole, cover it and then return in about an hour for lunch.

Strangely enough, a short distance from this primitive scene, steam from the bowels of the earth is being used to generate commercial electricity.

Dr. Harrison said wells are drilled to large supplies of escaping steam and this steam is used to turn huge generators.

Some of the best trout fishing in the world, as well as some of the best deep sea fishing, is found in New Zealand waters. The rainbow trout from America was introduced in New Zealand several years ago.

Now the average trout taken from New Zealand streams tips the scales at just under five pounds.

New Zealand is experimenting with pine trees. Due to climate and rainfall, pine trees grow something like twice as rapidly in New Zealand as in many other parts of the world. Industrialists hope to make pine a major crop.

The economy of the islands is predominately agricultural. Exports consist chiefly of butter, eggs, beef and mutton. Biggest market is Great Britain.

Dr. Harrison says New Zealanders tremble at the thought of the European Common Market which could cost them preferential treatment in the British market place.

New Zealand farmers hope the wedding between John Bull and the Common Market will never take place.

From Auckland, the Harrisons went on to Sydney, Australia, where they visited the Frank McNamara, a couple they met while Lowell was attending the London School of Economics in England in the early 1950's. McNamara is one of Australia's best known artists.

One of the things which impressed Dr. Harrison about Australia was the Aussie fear of the masses of Asia.

Since it was settled, Australia has had a white immigration ruling. Now the Aussies look fearfully to the north to the threat of teeming millions which could spill out of Asia onto the sparsely populated continent.

Australia roughly is about the size of the U.S. It has a population equivalent to about that of Texas. This population is concentrated around the southern and eastern rims of the continent. Four million of Australia's ten million inhabitants live in two cities—Sydney and Melbourne.

The government is trying desperately to bring in immigrants of white racial stock. The New Australian comes principally from Italy.

The government hopes to fill up its empty land area and ward off an invasion from land-hungry Asia.

The Harrisons visited the McNamaras a few days and then secured an apartment in Sydney, making it headquarters during their stay.

Then they were ready to head into the interior.

The continent is the oldest in the world, say scientists. Its mountains have eroded away until the tallest peaks on the continent are scarcely 3,000 feet high.

First trip the Harrisons took was into the blue mountain range, which is the dividing line between areas of sparse and heavy rainfall.

Seasons are reversed below the equator and the Harrisons were down under during the summer months. Bitter blizzards sometimes assail parts of the country in July and August when America is sweltering.

The travelers were fascinated by the kangaroos and the aborigines they saw in the interior. Some of the aborigines are so primitive that they have not even learned to cup their hands as a utensil for drinking water, but go down on their all fours and drink like animals from any pool they may happen to chance upon.

Their civilization has not yet advanced to the bow and arrow. Chief weapons are spear and the deadly boomerang. A boomerang is popularly considered a weapon which returns to its owner after being thrown.

Dr. Harrison says there are two types. The one which returns actually is a toy. The non-returning type is a potent weapon used for cutting down men in warfare and large game in the hunt.

Dr. Harrison proudly displays his war boomerang. It is made of wood from the mulga tree, a mesquite like plant which abounds in the dry ranch country inhabited by savages.

Kangaroos are plentiful in the wide open spaces. Dr. Harrison said it was not uncommon to see three to four dozen.

Ranchers periodically go on hunting expeditions for these creatures which they consider prime pests, next to the rabbit that infests the continent. Three kangaroos will eat as much as a cow and this is no laughing matter in a land where one section of forage is required for two head of livestock, even in a good year.

The Harrisons took a tour bus to Alice Springs and drove 800 miles in a straight line on unpaved road without seeing a single stream of water.

Alice Springs is about the size of Canyon. A dry river bed runs through the town. The area receives about 7 to 8 inches of rainfall annually and this comes usually in two downpours of near cloudburst proportions.

Dr. Harrison smiled as he remembered how the people of Alice Springs leave their work when it rains and flock to the rampaging river just to see the water go by.

There is talk of asking this country to provide an atomic bomb for blasting craters to impound rainfall in lakes during these storms. The people feel that radiation would be a small problem since the area is so sparsely populated and the radiation would recede to a safe level within six months to a year.

On the way to Alice Springs, the tour bus stopped at several ranches to deliver week-old newspapers which the ranch inhabitants literally devoured. Water is supplied for range stock by means of artesian wells, the water from which has such high mineral content as to render it useless for irrigation and human consumption.

Dr. Harrison said the country was in the throes of a drought when he and Mrs. Harrison were there. Ranchers had been forced to cut their range population to something like one animal to the section of range.

The Northern Territory of Australia, has only 29,000 population. "That is white people," Harrison reported. "The government doesn't count the aborigines."

Dr. Harrison learned of some of the tribal customs of the aborigine. Families sometimes live under pieces of tin or discarded sheet iron propped up to form a wind break.

Tribal law is still the ruling force among the savages of the interior. When a man is thought guilty of a crime he is never openly accused.

The chief calls a council. Then the chief relates a dream he supposedly has dreamed. The narrative points an accusing finger at the culprit.

This serves as the defendant's notice that he had better put some distance between himself and his tribe. The chief allows the accused a specified amount of time and then dispatches two of his best warriors on his trail.

The warriors are not allowed to return to the tribe until the deed is done and the sinner has paid for his transgression.

In the Northern Territory, says Dr. Harrison, the people are very proud of their smallest ranch. The little parcel of land only embraces 160 sections.

People of Australia also are proud of the biggest ranch on the globe. This vast spread is located in Queensland.

"They always point out proudly that it is even bigger than Texas' own King Ranch," Dr. Harrison related.

At Alice Springs, the Harrisons found that two-way radios play an important role in everyday life. Every ranch is equipped with a two-way radio.

Morning and evening national, international and local news is read on the network which links the outlying ranches to the town—the trade territory of which is probably the largest, spacewise, in the world.

Each ranch keeps its own well-stocked medicine chest. At the twice-daily get-togethers the symptoms of those who are ill are described over the network and the flying doctor service diagnoses and prescribes.

If the illness is serious, a physician either flies out to see the patient or the patient is flown to Alice Springs for treatment.

Some 40 children of ranchers are enrolled in radio school. Classes are conducted four days a week. School is out once a week when the Alice Springs women's club meets via radio.

Dr. Harrison said three or four members live in Alice Springs. These meet together in town and the remainder of the group "attends" by radio.

"It's strange to hear a club president call the meeting to order, then ask for a secretary's report and then hear the report coming from hundreds of miles away," Dr. Harrison declared.

Getting back to the more densely populated area, Dr. Harrison says Australia has had a considerable boom in its economy during the past few years in spite of a recession this year.

Much American money is being invested in Australia. Many companies have found it cheaper to manufacture products in Australia than to ship them across the vast stretches of ocean between the down-under continent and the United States. This also has been true in the case of Great Britain, Harrison declared.

One bad thing for the country's commerce is that its economy is greatly influenced by conditions in the U.S. and England, Harrison reported.

In spite of the impression drawn by the reader to this point, Dr. Harrison says all of the continent is not dry. Much of it has rainfall that would be considered average in this country.

One area receives 200 to 300 inches of rainfall a year and houses must be constructed on stilts.

Australia has found it necessary in the past to import its petroleum products. Oil exploration has been incessant as efforts have been made to solve this knotty problem. Four good wells recently were discovered in Queensland and Australians hope soon to be running their automobiles on Aussie petrol.

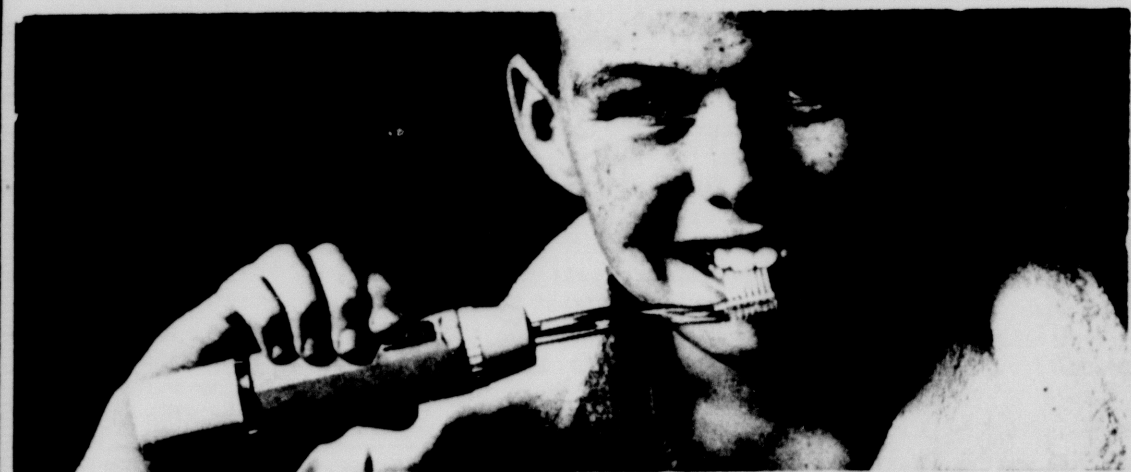

The Harrisons were impressed by the hearty hospitality of the Aussies. "They are very friendly," Dr. Harrison asserted. "They're great people."

Dr. Lowell Harrison looks over this primitive weapon given him by an Australian rancher during his recent visit to that continent. The savages of the interior are the most backward people on earth. They use this weapon for hunting game and in warfare.

NEW! GENERAL ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC TOOTHBRUSH

Gives cleaner teeth than handbrushing, plus healthful gum care—both at the same time! So pleasant, children will use it. So effective, everyone should.

Dentists know proper brushing is an essential part of home dental care. But when we brush by hand, most of us don't clean our teeth well enough or often enough (especially after eating). And we don't give our gums proper care.

Now, there is a new approach to the handbrushing problem. The General Electric Automatic Toothbrush encourages the whole family to brush longer and more often. Its automatic action is effective, too; it gives cleaner teeth than typical handbrushing.

The Secret: A Special Stroke

Unlike the hand, the Automatic Toothbrush can move back and forth in a very short, rapid, controlled stroke. This difference is why a powered back-and-forth motion now proves effective and safe in more ways. This stroke helps the Automatic Toothbrush clean more thoroughly, reach difficult places, penetrate deeply between the teeth, and give your teeth much more brushing than they receive by hand.

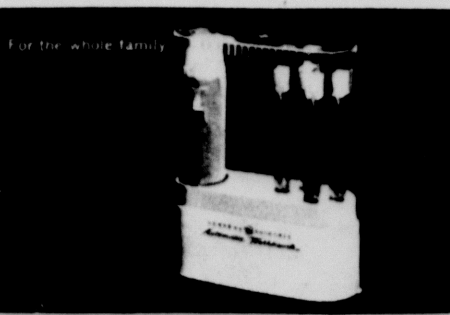

Two-Way Action Gives Healthful Gum Care

The automatic back-and-forth motion lets some of the bristles refresh the gums as you brush. If you press harder, they flex pleasantly and make your mouth feel tingling clean. Convenience and safety are built in. The handle has no cord to get in your way—a nickel-cadmium battery recharges in the holder below.

Monsanto Anhydrous Ammonia

You can save an extra trip through your fields by cutting Monsanto Anhydrous Ammonia into the soil as you plow.

Apply the ammonia under the furrow and several feet behind the plow. Trail hose under furrow to assure application at maximum depth. This practice has been especially successful where the soil is heavy and soil temperature drops below 50° in conjunction with fall plowing.

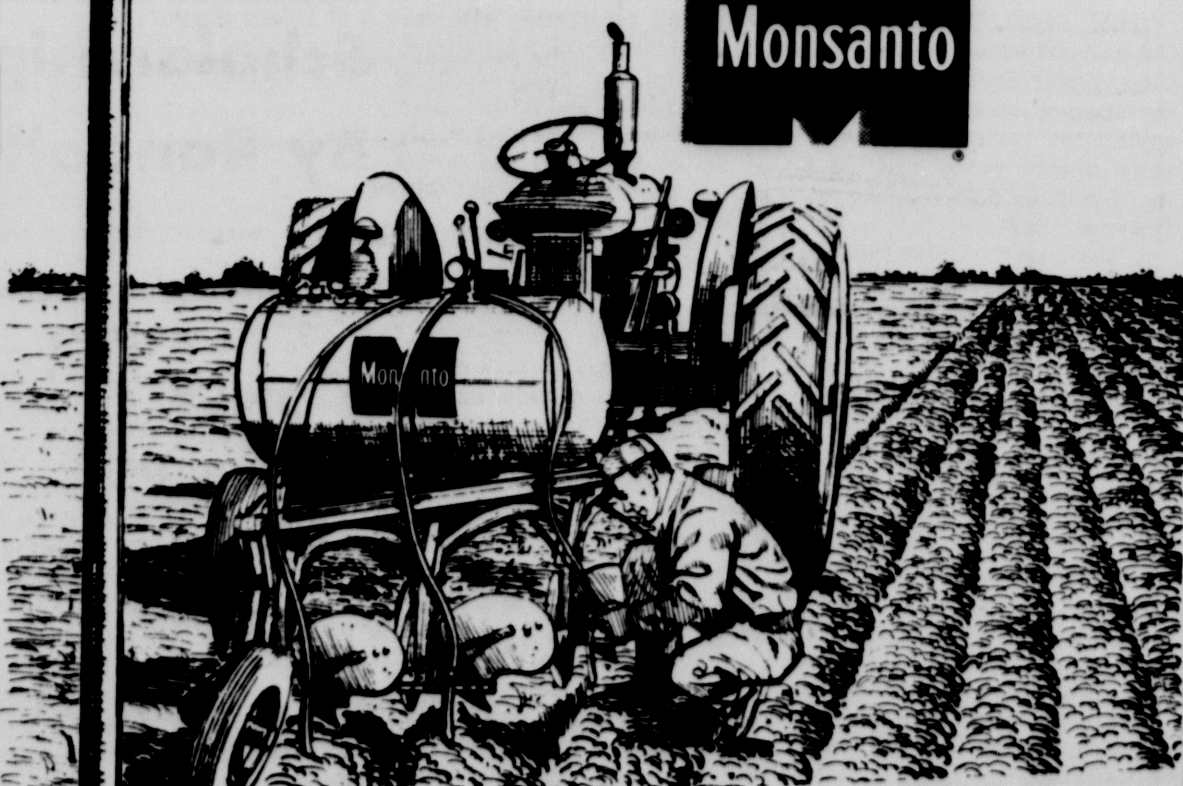

Release your ammonia almost as deep as the tillage, so a maximum of loose soil is above the fluid application zone. No doubt about savings. You save that extra trip through the fields. You won't have to wait for your fields to dry out in the spring. And, there are no bags or bagging costs—not to mention handling.

You get more nitrogen per pound with Monsanto Anhydrous Ammonia (82.2%) than with any other nitrogen carrier. One more hint, don't forget your check strip for visible proof of the advantages a fall application will bring to your spring crop.

The board voted to set up $8,000 in the tentative budget for purchase and repair of band equipment. Several members of the board complimented Montgomery on the thoroughness of his report.

A tentative budget of $849,510.00 was approved by the trustees. This compares to last year's budget of $770,082.00.

Biggest jump in the cost of a single item in the new budget over the old is the cost of instruction which is estimated to rise from $462,960.00 to $510,185.00 due chiefly to additional teachers and higher teacher salaries.

Public hearing on the budget will be held Aug. 21.

Clayton Shiver, school architect, went over preliminary plans for the elementary school. Final plans are scheduled for presentation to the board at its Aug. 21 meeting.

Shiver suggested that the board invite contractors to bid on construction on a selective basis. His contention was that in this manner there would be less danger of hiring a contractor who might be unable to complete the job.

There was no expression from the board on this suggestion.

Contract for supplying milk for the school cafeterias was awarded to Hazlewood Dairy at 6 cents per half-pint.

Actually, Hazlewood was third low in bidding. Board member Jerry LaGrone, in moving the acceptance of the Hazlewood bid, reasoned that Hazlewood's facilities are located in the school district and taxes are paid to Canyon schools on the plant.

Low bidder was Cloverlake of Plainview with a bid of 5 1/2 cents per half-pint. Goldsmith Dairy was second with a bid of 6 cents with a 5 percent discount.

LaGrone also noted that Hazlewood milk is produced by dairymen of the Canyon School District upon whose plants and herds school taxes are paid. Dissenting votes were cast by Dr. Charles Nester and Joe Gill.

Dr. Nester said he would have liked to award the contract to Hazlewood but felt that not accepting the low bid could result in other dairies refusing to submit bids in the future.

The board refused to accept a bid of $185 submitted by Orville Ladehoff on an old truck owned by the school. The board will open bids on the truck and two surplus buses at its August meeting.

Moving of old West Texas State College stadium seats to the high school track was discussed. The seats were donated to the school. Supt. Joe Gibson and Board Member Wesley Cox were appointed to make arrangements for moving the seats.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Hill was employed as a member of the faculty subject to assignment. Mrs. Hill, Paris, is the wife of a WT college instructor. She holds a degree from East Texas State College.

Superintendent Gibson was authorized to take bids for purchase of several items of cafeteria equipment.

Members of the board heard a report on damage done by hail in last month's storm. Estimated damage to school building roofs has been set at $23,920.50. Allowing for deductible, a claim of $27,444.50 has been approved.

husband with all the field work, and together they cut the bundles of feed and tied them by hand.

The family managed to live on the products of their cow and garden. They made their own bread and most of their vegetables they grew themselves. One month their grocery bill was as high as $4.

Mr. Leseberg died February 17, 1939, and Mrs. Leseberg was left to farm the land alone. For several years her daughter's family the Raymond Tuceks, have lived with her.

She is survived by one son, G.H. Leseberg of Canyon; two daughters, Mrs. Raymond Tucek and Mrs. Charlie Bauer, both of Canyon; one foster daughter, Mrs. Wilma Hossis of Amarillo; two brothers, Frederick Gemelke of Germany and Gustau Gemelke of Pilger, Nebraska; one sister, Ella Siemsglusz of Stanton, Nebraska; 16 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Fred Gerdson, Herbert Gerdson, Henry Meyer, Albert Meyer, George Albers and Irvin Bauer.

Canyon Family Finds Fun In Water Skiing

By MARGO WILLIAMS

These hot summer months encourage cool entertainment and the Kenneth Clark family has learned to take full advantage of the water facilities in the Canyon area.

All four family members have become avid waterskiers in the past seven years.

"We started skiing as a family sport and as we became more interested in it we found that other entertainment could be included in a weekend of skiing," said father Kenneth Clark.

When Santa Lou and Kenneth Clark decided on skiing as the family past time, they bought their own boat and skis for their two daughters, Charolette, now 13 years old, and Judy, 15.

They spent Sundays at Buffalo Lake until they found that with some camping equipment they could camp out for the weekend and ski for a couple of days without driving back and forth.

The enthusiastic family would drive to Oklahoma, New Mexico or lakes in Texas to practice their skiing techniques on various water bodies.

"We spent a lot of money on the sport, getting started, but it was such a good family sport we decided to continue it," Clark commented.

In 1959 the family became interested in competitive skiing. They entered sanctioned tournaments and became eligible for regional tournaments. In 1960 Charolette and Judy entered the national skiing finals in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Charolette placed 2nd in the jumping division and Judy was 4th in the slalom competition. The national finals were held in Austin in 1961 and the girls again won the same positions.

Clark who is 44 years old, keeps up with his girls, if not in the skiing end at least with his knowledge of the art. He and his wife judge at most of the tournaments they attend and for the past several years Kenneth has been in charge of the Rickshaw Water Ski Tournament, which is held at Buffalo Lake every year.

Mrs. Clark also skis with the family, but she leaves most of the fancy maneuvers to the girls.

Charolette and Judy have earned expert honors in all three skiing divisions: tricks, jumping and slalom. Judy has her masters in slalom and Charolette has her masters in jumping. A masters rating is the highest rank possible to attain.

Watching the girls perform is an experience that should not be missed. They have perfected ramp jumps with 180 degree turns at the peak of the ramp. Judy smoothly dodges the boys as she practices for the slalom matches, and Charolette's skill in handling herself during jumping practice is almost uncomparable for a girl of her age.

"We love skiing. I wouldn't say everyone would enjoy it, but we do. It is such a great family sport every family should at least give it a try," says Clark.

But the Clarks don't limit their realm of interests to the summer months. Mrs. Clark is Mother Advisor for the Canyon Rainbow Girls and is presently an officer in the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mr. Clark is a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Both girls are active in the Rainbow Girls and both played softball last summer. Charolette plays the piano for the Lions Club every Wednesday.

The Clarks represent only one family that has picked water skiing for summer entertainment. But they are not an average water skiing family...they are water skiing winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark and their two daughters, Charolette, 13, and Judy, 15, are preparing for a day at Buffalo Lake. The Clarks who are skiing enthusiasts, will be active in the Rickshaw Water Skiing Tournament this weekend at Buffalo. Charolette has come in 2nd in the national water skiing jumping for the last two years. Judy came in 4th in the national competition. Mr. and Mrs. Clark judge for local skiing tournaments and both have learned to ski with their daughters.

County Agent's Column

I have heard folks around here say that if you stay in West Texas long enough to wear out just one pair of shoes, you will remain in West Texas from now on. Ray H. Hynds of Corpus Christi, Texas stayed around Canyon long enough to learn the pleasure of eating fresh "lamb's Quarter greens" about forty years ago and would like to have the pleasure of doing this again.

A letter via the Ag. Department at West Texas State came to my desk from Hynds. He would like to have enough seed to plant in his garden in Corpus. Apparently Hynds, as a lad roamed the area along the railroad adjacent to the West Texas College Farm and gathered lamb's quarter for the table. Farmers still raise lamb's quarter--though mostly not by choice. Many of the younger generation probably never relished a steaming bowl of lamb's quarter greens.

Hynds address is 4402 Hamlin Drive, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Randall County is fast becoming an island in the midst of counties involved in the Bang's disease eradication program. Armstrong County cattlemen have petitioned for the clean-up program. We are now bordered on three of the four sides by counties doing control work. Pretty soon the movement of female cattle from Randall County will be difficult.

Soil samples for fertilizer needs should be gathered now and sent to the Extension Service Laboratory at Lubbock.

The time for fall fertilizer application will be here soon. Remember that a soil test does not show actual nitrogen levels in the soil if they were applied at fertilizer since the lab test determines organic content and calculates nitrogen from the organic analysis. Cost is two dollars per sample.

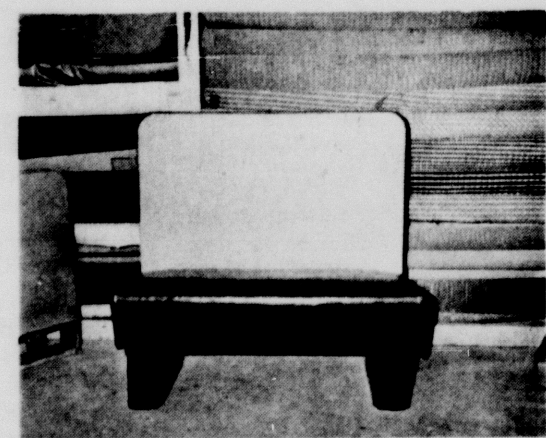

Jimmy Craig and Duane Howard are not renewing the feud between cattlemen and sheepmen but they are finding that sheep do well in this area. Howard and Craig are bringing lambs from the Edwards Plateau area of Texas into Randall County to finish them on Pastures. Pastures of the small grains, sudan, volunteer crops, and young weeds do a good job of putting weight on feeder lambs.

Other County farmers such as Ed Wieck, Harley Burrus, and David Horn have been using sheep for many years and find that they are pretty good to have around.

Hilltop Views

Some who read last week's article probably drew the conclusion that I am a Liberal. They are right, if they will let me spell the word with a little l; and under some conditions I am a big L liberal. But there is a lot of difference between the two varieties, as the terms are used today.

A little l liberal is one who attempts to maintain an open mind toward the issues and problems that confront him---that is, an open mind until all relevant evidence is in. When once he knows the facts about a given issue he closes his mind and weighs the facts on the basis of the information he has. He may come to the wrong conclusion but if so it is not because of the lack of probable facts. Such people are not usually narrow, prejudiced, ill-informed or unduly selfish.

Big L liberals are supporters of a political organization, many of whom are not liberal at all. They may be ill-informed, narrow, prejudiced, and selfish; or they may be highly intelligent but I think the end justifies the means. In reality such people have little in common with little l liberals. Some of them have been brain-washed by self-seeking leaders. Really, they are fit for citizenship in a society whose leaders do the thinking and planning for all the people. All forms of autocracy illustrate what I mean. I am definitely not that type of liberal.

Unfortunately, two vastly differing large groups represent themselves as true liberals and have been cast by circumstance into the same political pot. By and large they vote the Democratic ticket.

Having admitted that I am a liberal in the original meaning of that term I now come to say that I am also a conservative (note the little c in the spelling). Just as I am a liberal of the Jeffersonian type. I believe in the dignity of man--every man--because he has in him a spark of divinity. God created man in His own image. Hence I must respect man--all men whatever their race, color, language, creed, or economic condition.

As Lincoln said, "No man has a right to rule another man without that other man's consent."

We have to have government and peace officers to protect each one's inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. If everybody were good we should have relatively little need for government. In more than one instance a single criminal has cost government millions of dollars and individuals indescribable misery. When Thomas Jefferson wrote: "That government is best which governs least" he was no doubt thinking of a society whose citizens maintain a high standard of conduct.

It follows from the above that the lower the level of the average citizen's behavior the more government must be centralized. Another way of saying the same thing is: if we want lower taxes we must behave ourselves. To put it yet another way: if we are losing our freedoms, as so often is said, it is because our collective conduct compels more government regulations.

Now our collective conduct is the sum total of our conduct as individuals; and this gets us back to another fundamental--the doctrine of individualism, wherein each of us not only has natural rights that must be conserved, but also has natural responsibilities that must be intelligently and fairly discharged. Freedom is not a one-way street--liberty is far nobler and more precious than license. One who expects more from government than he gives is helping to pile up power in the capital.

So I'm a conservative in the sense that I believe in preserving the high ethical principles that are implicit in our Declaration of Independence and national constitution. Fundamentally, conservatism is not primarily concerned with taxes, federal aid to education, medicare, agricultural problems, and the like. But it is concerned with the quality of approach we make in trying to solve these and all other problems. Let it be said again that free government is first of all an achievement in spiritual values. If these values are allowed to degenerate the result will be like taking blood out of the body.

On the other hand, if conservatism means a continuation of the practice of favoritism on the part of any branch of government to any special interest, individual or group, and to the detriment of any other individual or group, then I'm not a Conservative in anybody's party.

If brain-washing must be an implement of Conservatism, then I'm not a Conservative.

If Conservatism means toadying to any special interest group, such as monopolistic management of capital or labor or any other segment of our society then I'm not a Conservative.

If, as Senator Goldwater said plainly a few days ago in urging all Republicans to stand together (and he is a major mouthpiece of Conservatism) loyalty to the organization is more important than loyalty to one's own convictions, then it doesn't take me long to tell you where I stand. Sir, I'm 'agin' it. Freedom of thought is one of man's inalienable rights; and if one cannot act in keeping with what he thinks, what is the use of thinking at all, Sir? That kind of Conservatism is out the window with me, whether it comes from a Republican or a Democratic source.

Finally, my major "ism" is Americanism, which is basically opposed to every form of autocracy--political, economic, industrial, educational, religious, or what have you. I believe in human rights as the basic concept of all free government. The nation that ignores or habitually violates this concept is riding for a fall. If I were a Hottentot I would probably think differently.

Baptist Boys Attend Week Of R.A. CAMP

The First Baptist Church sent 13 boys to the Royal Ambassador Crusader Camp this week.

The camp, which is being held at the Amarillo Baptist Assembly, is for boys nine to eleven years of age. The boys will work on their R.A. ranks, engage in mission study, Bible study, and various forms of recreation.

Rev. Bill Burton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Friona, is the Camp Pastor and Rev. Kyle Lawrence, a foreign missionary from Brazil, is the camp missionary.

Your Better Hearing

This column will conclude the discussion of hearing aids for the present. We will, of course, be considering various aspects of hearing aid use during the entire length of this series.

The last few suggestions for hearing aid care are:

11. Be sure that the battery is properly inserted. The hearing aid is made for one and only one direction of current. It is entirely possible that a hearing aid may be seriously damaged or destroyed by improper positioning of the batteries.

12. Each time the hearing aid is put on, be sure that the earpiece is firmly seated in the ear and that the volume of the hearing aid is not on full. Unless this is carefully watched, feedback (speaking) may result.

13. If feedback occurs frequently while wearing your aid, perform the following checks:

a. Be sure that the feedback is caused by acoustic feedback and not by something inside the aid itself. Move the receiver (button at the ear) close to and then away from the body of the aid. If the intensity of the feedback does not change, the problem is internal and your aid should be taken to the dealer for repair.

b. If the problem seems to be feedback, make the following tests: (1) Turn the hearing aid up to the normal comfortable setting and place the thumb tightly over the receiver opening. If the feedback is heard, proceed to the next step. (2) Attach the earpiece to the receiver and place the thumb tightly over the earpiece opening. If squealing occurs in the first two checks, it can be assumed that the trouble lies in an earpiece which is too small and squealing occurs, the ring spring in the earpiece is worn out and you should have a new ear-mold made. (3) If no squealing occurs in the first two checks, it can be assumed that the trouble lies in an earpiece which is too small and poorly fitted. In this case, you should see your dealer immediately and have a mold made for a new earpiece.

The foregoing information has been presented not in order that you become your own hearing aid serviceman, but rather, in order that you might be able to spot any problems and solve them without having to call on your hearing aid dealer.

One parting word of caution: NEVER open the case of your aid even to peek at its internal workings. The warranty on an aid is automatically cancelled when it is opened.

Next week, we will consider the vocation of audiology for a young person.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Bill Moore is one of Canyon's outstanding citizens. There simply is no telling how much good will Bill's drama department spreads for Canyon and West Texas State College.

Bill is a very gracious person who makes a good showing wherever he happens to be and in whatever company he happens to find himself.

We shall never forget Bill's talk on Panhandle Heritage Foundation to members of the Panhandle Press Association last spring in Amarillo. He and Mrs. Ples Harper came almost impromptu to the speaker's rostrum and stole the show.

Mrs. Harper brought along plenty of printed material. We stood by the door and handed out Heritage Foundation pamphlets in the backwash of applause for their speeches.

Everyone wanted a pamphlet to find out more about what Bill and Mrs. Harper had been discussing. The next day there was a unanimous vote by editors of the Panhandle for a resolution pledging Panhandle newspapers to support the Heritage Foundation in its efforts to produce a symphonic drama. You can imagine that we were just slightly proud of our townspeople. We have never seen either Mrs. Harper or Bill Moore wearing a frown.

Dr. Lowell Harrison, head of the West Texas State History Department, is one of the most interesting people we ever have had the pleasure to interview. We talked Saturday to Dr.

Harrison about his recent tour of Australia.

He made his adventures come alive. If we ever have the opportunity we plan to take a class under him. We are willing to bet that history of the ages lives in his telling. Studying history, our favorite subject, under Dr. Harrison should be a memorable undertaking.

We certainly appreciate the decision of commissioners court to get together with the Canyon city commission. We believe that harmony will grow out of the meeting.

The two governing bodies are going to talk about the controversial city-county rural fire fighting contract. It may be a good time for them to discuss on friendly terms several other things.

The destinies of Canyon and the whole of Randall County are bound together. Interests of north and south Randall County vary slightly.

We certainly believe wholeheartedly in county participation, to the extent that it is legal and moral, in the development of South Amarillo and we hope that South Amarillo people feel the same way about our part of the county.

The W.J. Wootens and the Bernard Warrens have just returned from a trip to the World's Fair. We understand that the only accident they had during the trip involved the Wootens and Warren vehicles in a minor collision with each other. You could have run together at home, fellows!

SCD News

Due to the spottiness of the recent rains this district has received from 3' to over 10' of moisture in the past month and a half. Now is the time for farmers to look over their fields to see if erosion is occurring. If erosion has occurred, it will continue until something is done to control the water that is running off your farm.

The best and most inexpensive way to control water erosion is by installing a terrace system and following the terrace system in all your farming operations. Good management of crop residues will help in preventing erosion.

Diversions and terraces can be built so they can be farmed. The cost of construction is approximately 15¢ per cubic yard for diversions and 4¢ per ft. for standard terraces. The local ASCS office offers funds for sharing the cost of carrying out soil and water conservation practices.

If you have an erosion problem, contact the local SCS technicians assisting the Randall Potter SCD for help in solving the problem.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it -- and so do its readers!

Two Young Men Begin Mormon Mission Work

You have probably noticed two well-dressed young men walking around Canyon the last week or so and are wondering just who they are. The taller one is Howard Beck of Aberdeen, Idaho, and the other one is Cecil Ellison of Montgomery, Alabama.

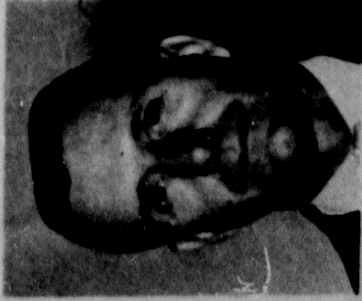

The men are Mormon missionaries with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and will spend the next several months talking and visiting with local people. They are two of 11,000 Mormon men who volunteer two years of their lives to serve as church missionaries.

Beck, 21, has spent 19 months teaching in the Texas Mission, and Ellison, 26, is in his first month of teaching.

There is no paid ministry in the Church and for transportation the boys rent a car from the Mormon Church.

are beginning 2 softball leagues for young Canyon boys. One league will be for boys from 8-11, and the other will include boys between the ages of 12-15.

The personable young men just talking with Canyon people, spend from 70 to 75 hours a week just talking with Canyon people, as do 200 such missionaries in the Texas Mission.

Before they begin their teaching, the men spend a week in a Mission Home listening to the Church authorities and learning how to "batch it" for two years.

From 130 to 230 Mormon men go through the Mission Home a week and at the week's end they are sent all over the world to "speak a message of Christ."

Mrs. C.W. Warwick

HAS BEEN SELECTED BY ANDERSON APPLIANCE AS

"JULY HOUSEWIFE OF THE MONTH"

This month Anderson Appliance salutes Mrs. C.W. Warwick of 2519 11th Ave., July Housewife of the month.

Mrs. Warwick moved into her new pink brick home January 19, of this year, and is very pleased with the convenience and beauty of her Frigidaire appliances.

Mrs. Warwick, who has lived in Canyon since 1908, raises potted plants as her hobby. She has a lovely sun deck connected to her kitchen where her flowers are drenched in warm sunshine. Her entire home is done in light pink with doors only on the bathrooms. The downstairs is divided into two parts: the east side is her living quarters with bath, kitchen, bedroom and sitting room and on the west is the living room and dining area for entertaining. This is truly a beautiful home built for utility and comfort where a visiting dignitary may be entertained or the grandchildren can bake cookies.

Mrs. Warwick has six grandchildren of which she is very proud. They are Mary Pat, 18, Ann, 18, Arthur, 16, Denny, 14, Becky, 9, and Sandra, 2 all living in Canyon. "They are here a good deal. I enjoy them thoroughly," says Mrs. Warwick.

In referring to her Frigidaire appliances Mrs. Warwick says, "I like them. They are so wonderful." As proof of this statement, she has moved three times in recent years and for each new home has purchased a Frigidaire dishwasher. She has owned her Frigidaire refrigerator since 1954 and it is still giving excellent service.

Mrs. Warwick is impressed with and appreciates the quick and friendly service she receives from Anderson's.

Anderson Appliance will be glad to show you new Frigidaire appliances...so drop in and see what they have to offer you in the way of convenient Frigidaire products.

Highway Accidents Costly Lives, Property Says DPS

In 1961 there were 2,314 human lives battered, smashed, torn and strewn upon Texas streets and highways according to the Department of Public Safety. Another 132,570 were sent to doctors and hospitals, some of these injured are maimed for life. Some 400,000 automobiles were damaged or demolished. Our economic loss came to an astounding figure of $356,112,000. Our liability and collision insurance premiums came to a sum of almost two hundred and fifty million dollars.

If the 2,314 dead traffic victims were stacked in a pile, the dimensions would be about 2 1/2 miles in length, 3/4 of a mile in width and 4/10 of a mile in height.

The dimensions for the 132,570 injured would be 144 miles in length, 42 miles in width and 21 miles in height. The dimensions of the some 400,000 damaged or demolished vehicles would be 1,330 miles in length, 500 miles in width and 379 miles in height.

Now for a descriptive look at the three hundred and fifty-six million dollars cost of the traffic accidents. The playing area of a football field measures 300 feet by 160 feet, or 48,000 square feet. United States currency measures about 2 5/8 inches by 6 1/8 inches.

If a football field was completely covered with one dollar bills, then a layer of two dollar bills, then a layer of five dollar bills, then a layer of ten dollar bills, then a layer of twenty dollar bills, then a layer of fifty dollar bills, then a layer of one hundred dollar bills, then a layer of five hundred dollar bills and on top of these eight layers of paper money, dump 1,774 tons of silver dollars, this would represent the economic loss we suffered in Texas for the year 1961.

The three hundred and fifty-six million dollars would have bought 10,000 homes at $20,000 each; 10,000 refrigerators at $400 each; 10,000 cooking ranges at $350 each; 10,000 TV sets at $350 each; 10,000 dishwashers at $300 each; 10,000 automobiles at $3,000 each; 10,000 central air conditioning units at $1,400 each and furnish the head of each of the 10,000 households with a bank account of $9,811.

Out-Of-State Boys Look For Cowboys

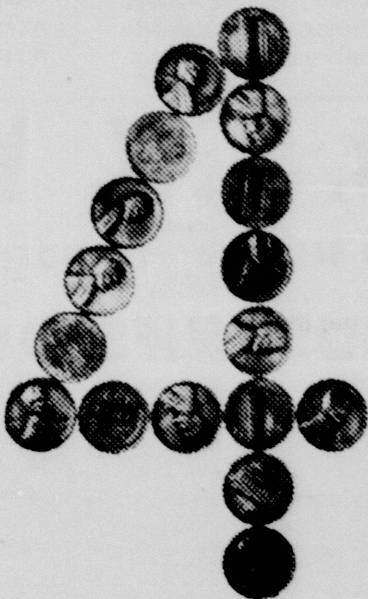

There were some disappointed boys in Canyon Thursday when not one cowboy could be found.

The 29 boys made up a group of YMCA members who are on their way from Orlando, Florida to Cheyenne, Wyoming.

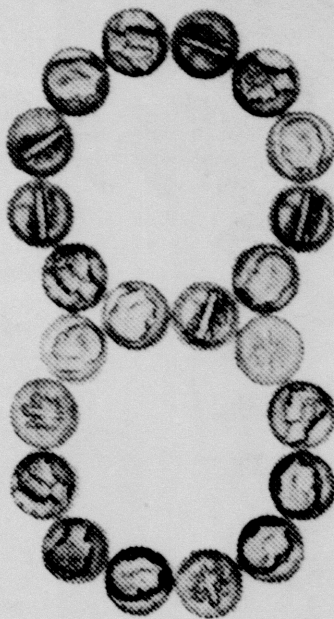

They spent Thursday night in Palo Duro Canyon and the children kept looking for the typical cowboy and horse that seems to represent the wild west.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cascaddan, Bill Duvall and Mr. and Mrs. David Rymen were chaperoning the boys on the month tour of the western half of the United States.

■ "It seems I have so much more time since we got our electric home freezer — but then it isn't that I really have more time — it's just that I can make better use of my time.

For example, when I'm baking pies I bake extra ones and then put them in the freezer. That way I don't get myself tied down baking a pie for guests — I just take one out of the freezer. Yes, my electric freezer frees me!"

Wear Pleads For Less Name Calling In Talk

"A better world begins with me."

Bob Wear made this assertion recently as he spoke before the Canyon Lions Club.

Wear said that along with talking about what is wrong with this country, we should be also be talking about what is good about it.

Reminders of our heritage are all around us, he declared.

"I sometimes think we lose faith in our spiritual heritage," the speaker went on.

He said there is a tendency among all of us to distrust each other. He decried this tendency.

He pointed to the unease that resulted when Russia put the first satellite into orbit. The public school system became a whipping boy, he declared.

"Why aren't we more stable?" the speaker said "We've lost some of our confidence in our heritage."

"We've almost destroyed freedom of speech in America," he asserted. "People will no longer express themselves on anything. They fear that if they express themselves they will be called an ugly name."

Wear said people with differences should work together for the betterment of all.

"We have enough in common, in spite of differences, that we ought to be able to work together for our common good.

"We have a right to differ without being called an ugly name."

Wear said he is convinced that the majority of people in the US are loyal American people.
